One Worlders To Surrender U.S. EGGHEAD WRECKERS AT WORK

Dear American —

Gentlemen — rarely in our history have the States used or needed the STATE MILITIA established by the Constitution (which never has been wrong). But now — with "dire peril" and "long twilight" stalking us all — the Federal Agency is trying in one way or another to DISARM US. This is probably the end of an era — a turning point in our history. The obligation of LEADERSHIP IN THE STATES was never so great as it is today. That Leadership needs the support of its own Militia. The States are solvent, while the Federal Agency is not. The World is in revolution while Peace prevails in the States. Surely this is no time to permit further intrusion into the States from a corrupt and irresponsible — if not actually disloyal — Bureaucracy. If the Federal Agency must go down, sharing the fate of every "democracy" of the past, the States need not fall with it. An informed, courageous and responsible State Government, supported by all its people, with its own Militia, can hold. — Adapted from an "Open Letter to the Governors and Representatives of the Sovereign States".

The Disarmament Program

INTRODUCTION

Since the very beginning of recorded history dedicated "peace seekers" have sought to establish "peace on earth, good will to men" by means of world government and centralized control of all means of waging war. All such plans have ended in world chaos; the most grandiose and most nearly successful of such plans (Pax Romano) brought on the Dark Age which jeopardized "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" for more than a thousand years.

With the coming of "world war," to the modern age, the "dedicated peace seekers" have redoubled their efforts to bring about — by their own abilities and denying God and His Christ at every turn — a world government which will ensure world peace by establishing a centralized control of all "offensive" weapons.

In the United States, this effort has been directed by a comparatively small group of men who have affiliated themselves in a semi-secret organization called The Council on Foreign Relations. Working in conjunction with more than 100 like-minded organizations and groups, this Establishment has gained control of the Executive branch of our Federal Agency, of its Judicial branch, dominates the Legislative branch; and exercises vast control over all State and local governments.

This group of "dedicated peace lovers" engineered the League of Nations Covenant, but at that time had insufficient power to "sell" it to the United States Senate. The group was more successful with its United Nations Charter; but in 1945 did not dare try to disarm the United States and turn over all armaments to the UN.

Now, however, with CFR-alumnus Kennedy acting as chief mouthpiece, the group has become more bold; sees total disarmament as an actuality in less than a decade.

IS DISARMAMENT CONSTITUTIONAL?

To "provide for the common defense" was the chief reason for the forming of a confederation of the original 13 States. If the Federal Agency is not to "provide for the common defense," there is little or no remaining reason for maintaining a Federal Agency. Most other things the States could provide for themselves through inter-State agreements, and at a vast saving in both time and money.

But the "peace seekers" have no desire to outlaw or dispense with the U. S. Constitution as a symbol of Federal Agency authority. There is a "revolution within the form" of Constitutional Government. So they side-step the Constitution, and never admit outright that it has been suspended or out-moded as a governmental document. Don K. Price explained the strategy in these words:

"Just as it has become harder in recent years to draw old sharp distinctions between domestic and foreign problems, between peace and war, or between public and private affairs, so it has become harder within our constitutional system to distinguish between the functions of the legislative and executive branches, or between questions of policy and those of administration . . . This is not to say that the Constitution of the United States is being flouted or ignored. It is the basic instrument of our government, and controls the basic distribution of its powers and functions. But as a matter of practical politics, we have fortunately recognized that the basic framework can be preserved best if we do not worship all the incidental apparatus and procedures that the Founding Fathers had in mind. Back of our written Constitution we have developed an unwritten constitution that is much more complex than the unwritten British constitution, and equally responsive to adjustments in the balance of powers and prestige among its several branches."

Not one American in a thousand knows that our U. S. Constitution has been supplanted by an "unwritten constitution," but so says Don Price, and he's certainly in a position to know.

HIGH-PRESSURES THE UN

The CFR-gang became rather disgusted with the slowness and timidity of the United Nations on the matter of disarmament. As Paul H. Nitze observed in October, 1960:

"The fact that the UN General Assembly set disarmament, not the control and regulation of armaments, as the objective of the Disarmament Commission seriously hampered our negotiators at Geneva in their endeavor to get away from the sterile debate over ultimate objectives and on to a discussion of practical measures designed to mitigate and contain the dangers and risk of the present untenable and dangerous weapons confrontation."

Since the UN was acting too slowly to suit the "peace seekers" in the matter of quick and total world disarmament, they determined to act on their own — but in the name of the Government of the United States — by presenting to the Geneva Conference a ready-made disarmament proposal, and a promise that we would be the first to disarm and give all to the UN, if only the Geneva conferees would agree.

These foreign delegates have an idea that our United States Congress is the supreme lawmaking body in our land (maybe they haven't heard about our "unwritten constitution") So, it seemed highly desirable to have Congress pass a fitting and proper "Arms Control and Disarmament Act." This was duly approved and signed into law by President Kennedy.

While CFR agents were busy guiding Public Law 87-297 through to enactment, the CFR-controlled State Department was busy getting the disarmament program into writing. Since it was necessary (though a nuisance, of course), that the American people be told about the disarmament plan, and "sold" on its desirability, the State Department, in September, 1961, released its FREEDOM FROM WAR pamphlet (Dept. of State Publication 7277). This State Department program called for "general and complete disarmament" on the part of the United States and other nations, and the "progressive strengthening of international institutions under the United Nations" and the creation of a "United Nations Peace Force to enforce the peace as the disarmament process proceeds."

More and more, one gets the impression that the Kennedy Klansmen and the Khrushchev Koinrats have it all figured out that the world is theirs to divide up between themselves, that all nations must play the game according to their rules — and "all nations" include both Russia and the United States!

1963 may be our very last year to resist this total surrender of our sovereignty. Perhaps we should begin the resistance by holding every Senator and Congressman to the strict letter of the oath he takes as a servant of the people:

"I do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose or evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, So help me God."

DISARM?

QUESTIONS ALL AMERICANS MUST ANSWER

1) Who were the Founding Fathers of the United Nations?

Answer: Alger Hiss — U.S.A. — convicted of perjury as a result of denying he was a Communist while under oath.

Vladimir Grusha

Leo Pasvolosky

Philip C. Jessup — U.S.A. — Officer of Institute of Pacific Relations cited by Senate Subcommittee as a subversive organization.

Vyacheslav N. Molotov — U.S.S.R.

Admiral K. Radinov

Harry Dexter White — U.S.A. — linked to Communist Party, died before he could testify in Alger Hiss case; called a Communist spy by Attorney General Brownell in November of 1953.

2) At the present time, what is the Supreme law of the United States?

Answer: The United Nations' Charter is the supreme law of the land and supersedes the Constitution. Article Six of our Constitution states "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land." The United Nations' Charter was ratified by the United States Senate and signed by President Truman in 1945 as a treaty.

3) To what extent do the Communists now control the United Nations?

Answer: The neutral and Soviet blocs have the majority of votes in the council that would rule the world. The Afro-Asian block, of itself, has half of the necessary votes and Khrushchev is making big strides in creating a whole string of left leaning "neutrals" such as Indonesia, Iraq and Ghana, who, at the present time, almost hold the balance of power in the General Assembly of the United Nations.

4) What are the six words comprising the Connally Reservation, and why are they important?

Answer: "As determined by the United States." These six words have thus far prevented the World Court from seizing jurisdiction over domestic problems within the United States. If this provision was repealed, those in control of the United Nations would rule us and we would be subject to them. Many of the representatives of these nations have no comprehension of rule of law, free enterprise, our Bill of Rights, or even our religious and spiritual heritage.

5) What group within the United Nations controls the UN Police Force?

Answer: The Secretary of the Security Council controls all UN Police Force activities. The Secretaries since 1945 are listed below:

1946-49 A. S. Sobelov, USSR

1950-53 K. Zinchenko, USSR

1953-57 I. Tchernyshev, USSR

1957-60 A. Dobrynin, USSR

1960-62 G. R. Aikadev, USSR

1962- E. D. Kiselev, USSR

The Communists always control the Security and Police Forces within nations they dominate and have always had this control within the framework of the United Nations.

6) Can we expect the Communists to live up to their agreements?

Answer: The Russians have broken over 90% of the treaties and covenants they have made with nations of the world and 50 out of 53 agreements negotiated with the United States since our recognition of their government in 1933. This includes their expressed promise not to engage in espionage within our nation, an agreement made as a basis of our recognition of their government.

7) To what extent can a disarmed United States depend on a UN Police Force to uphold justice and freedom?

Answer: Consider how have other nations fared under the "protection" of the UN: Hungary, Korea, Katanga, Tibet, Laos.

The experiences of the above listed nations demonstrate that God-fearing men cannot depend on a world police force in the charge of a Russian Communist to uphold their natural rights to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness and their right to own property.

8) Has the United States taken any legal steps toward disarmament?

Answer: Yes, Public Law 87-297, 87th Congress. "The Arms Control and Disarmament Act." This law established an agency as a part of the executive branch of the government commissioned with the task of implementing a program to disarm the United States. This grave responsibility falls on the shoulders of one man who is the head of this agency; a man who has the power to disarm all weapons within the United States.

9) Should the United States disarm, and hand our sovereignty to the United Nations?

Answer: Every American must supply himself with the knowledge and facts necessary to answer this important question. If you are convinced that this article means what it says, then begin telling other people what it stands for . . . the dissolution of the United States and our American heritage.

Let's Face Reality and Cope With Conditions as They Are

By MALCOLM KNIGHT

We have political polls of all kinds conducted for the sole purpose of indicating what the tabulators of such polls want them to indicate. If you want an intelligent first hand survey as to whether or not your country is secure and has a reasonable chance of survival as a free and independent republic as it was from 1776 until 1932, then you ask everyone you meet how many anti-Communist organizations they now belong to and how many anti-Communist publications they subscribe to and contribute to. You will be astounded to learn how few American people today are the least bit interested in the welfare or survival of their country, their religion or their very freedom such as they and their ancestors have enjoyed since 1776.

About one out of one hundred seemingly intelligent American adults today is actually intelligent enough to appraise the myriads of flagrant evidences we have had for the past thirty years, or more, showing that we are being deliberately pushed down the road toward enslavement under atheistic Communism by the most sinister and deadly serious conspiracy ever to operate so brazenly since the very beginning of our present recorded history. The great majority of American people today are seemingly hopelessly brainwashed, indolent, stupid jerks floating along without giving a serious thought to the survival of the freedoms to which they have been accustomed.

Until you can make such a survey among your friends and acquaintances and find that at least one-half of them name anti-Communist organizations that they do belong to and anti-Communist publications that they do subscribe and contribute to, the survival of the freedoms you have fallen heir to and have taken for granted are doomed to very shortly sink into oblivion.

Bear in mind while taking such a survey, that without having sense enough to know it, the ninety and nine seemingly intelligent friends and acquaintances who answer negatively to your survey are completely useless to their religion, to their country, to their children or even to themselves. Your religion, your country and the freedoms which you now take for granted are not at all secure until at least one-half of the ninety and nine brainwashed, indolent, stupid jerks who are not alert to where they are treacherously and deliberately being pushed, have been shocked or goaded into awakening and facing reality. The most vital question of today is: — Are the American people determined, through their own indolence and stupidity, to bring upon themselves a most horrible awakening experience before a sufficient number of them alert themselves and turn the tide and thus avoid the horrible experience which is inevitable unless a sufficient number of Americans do alert themselves?

The rise and fall of the United States is now being written. What part are you playing in this great drama? Are you one of the ninety and nine brainwashed, indolent, stupid jerks who, by your own stupidity, choose to continue floating along without seeing the obvious handwriting on the wall of time and by so doing choose to bring upon all of us the inevitable horrible experience through which we will learn the hard way? Or are you the one out of one hundred vested with sufficient wisdom to see what we are deliberately being pushed into and choosing to cope with the corruptive conspiracy by exposing the conspiracy to the sunlight of public opinion and thus turn the tide and avoid the otherwise inevitable horrible experience of learning the hard way, the way of the unintuitive, the stupid and the indolent? If you are one out of one hundred wise enough to see the conspiracy you will be condemned and ridiculed unmercifully by the ninety and nine because you are able to see reality a little more clearly than the masses.

It will be gravely interesting to observe which path the majority of the American people choose to take during the crisis which is now confronting us and forcing us to choose either the path of wisdom and progress or indolent stupidity and retrogression. Ever since the days of Adam man has had absolute power of choice and he has had to endure the consequences of his own choice. Every bitter experience man has suffered and endured could have been avoided had man chosen the path of wisdom and understanding instead of the path of indolence and stupidity. Which path the majority of American people will choose at this crucial time depends upon which path you, as a single unit constituting the majority, choose to take. Divine Law forces man to learn but he does not have to learn the hard way through stupidity and suffering unless he remains stupid and thus chooses the path of stupidity and suffering instead of choosing the path of progress through wisdom and understanding. Be wise and observant and don't miss any phase of the deadly serious drama now being enacted before your very eyes.

ATLANTA BILTMORE
ATLANTA, GA.
August 1, 1949

Dr. Harmon W. Caldwell
Chancellor
University System of Georgia
20 Ivy Street, S. E.
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Dr. Caldwell:

Recently I had the opportunity to read your circular letter dated June 20, 1949, wherein you appeal for donations to support the work of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Holding you in high regard as I do, I was greatly disappointed to see your good name, as well as your high position, used to promote an undertaking that cannot succeed unless the Jews themselves change their age-old methods and come with clean hands into conference with Christians.

It is not a question of giving the Jews freedom in the exercise of their religion. Rightfully, they enjoy that now. But it is their traits as a race that have made them outcasts throughout all history. The problem comes down to us today unchanged. Their activities have resulted in their being driven out of every country wherein they have been domiciled, and America will be no exception unless the Jews themselves succeed in their plan to control America completely.

The most important problem before us today, locally, nationally and internationally, is how to save the world from Jewish treachery. There can be no lasting peace until that problem is solved.

Gen. George Van Horn Moseley

Aide for three years.

Christ pointed out their shortcomings and their sins, and as a result, all their power was directed against Him. They are crucifying Him at every turn in the road today, while they still use their combined money and influence to smear and destroy anyone who dares to expose their real character and objectives. "Release unto us Barabbas — crucify Him" is still their slogan.

But let us confine ourselves to those events regarding the Jew that have occurred in your lifetime and mine. Just what Jews do you ask us to tolerate today? Do you include that pack of Jews living generally in New York City while they concocted their plans for the Russian Revolution and for the establishment of the bloody rule of Bolshevism throughout the world? They were financed, in part at least, by a New York Jewish banker. While the government of the Czars may have been unjust in dealing with the Russian Jews, when the Bolsheviks took over they liquidated some thirty million Christians in the years that followed their rise to power. The actual conditions existing at the time were well expressed by the Netherlands' Minister at Petrograd, in a communication received by Mr. Balfour September 18, 1918, from which I quote briefly: "I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war, which is still raging, and unless, as stated above, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another, over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality and whose object is to destroy, for their own ends, the existing order of things." That prophecy stands today 100 percent correct.

Certainly you are familiar with the bloody government of Bela Kun in Hungary — all Jew controlled. Today, we are having trouble with a similar government in Hungary. The only reason we do not have such a government in the U.S.A. is just because the Jews, as yet, do not have the power to install it. One of Stalin's representatives in the Balkans is the Jewess Ana Pauker, Foreign Minister of Romania. She reached her present position after being trained in Russia, and after murdering those who stood in her way, including one of her own benefactors. There are many such Jews right here in the United States — Jews and Jewesses who have their assignments in the expected revolution. All this is exemplified by a concrete statement made by an old-time Jewish lawyer of New York City, who summed up the situation in these words: "We Jews are always the same. We squawk to high heaven when we think we are being persecuted, but we are the tyrants of the world when we rule."

Again I ask you, Dr. Caldwell, who are these Jews you ask Christians to tolerate? Your choice of the word "intolerance" is good, for one tolerates conditions or individuals that are low or very objectionable for one reason or another. Would you have us tolerate those Jewish spies who are so active throughout our country, some of whom are now being tried? Do you ask us to tolerate those Jews who are well-known leaders in the Communist Party, where they so often use so-called Christians as their stooges or Gentile front? In a detailed analysis of the Communist Party in one of our large cities, the report showed that well over 90 percent were Jews, and where a non-Jew appeared prominently, he or she was generally a front to cover the real actors. One Jewess proclaimed very loudly in the press several years ago, that all the thousands of Jews in the large city where she had lived for years, were communists; that if any were not, they were traitors to their great leader Karl Marx. No one contradicted her.

It has been reliably reported that over 75 percent of the evidence on file in the records of the Committee on un-American activities, is against Jews. Do you realize that in the crime records of the United States the Jews are conspicuous as leaders? If you will investigate communism, the liquor traffic, the white slave traffic, the dope traffic, the black market, you will run head-on into a pack of Jews. While non-Jews may be encountered, they are in the great minority. Add to this the vile publications sponsored so largely by Jews — publications which they distribute and sell broadcast to the youth of the land.

What will be the end of all this? Anti-Semitism is increasing by leaps and bounds throughout America and over the world. By their actions the Jews are fanning the flames. If the Jews do not mend their ways, punishment will be meted out to them surpassing in severity anything yet recorded in history.

You could perform a great service, Dr. Caldwell, if you could make the Jews realize the seriousness of their present situation, inducing them in the interest of peace at home and abroad, to abandon their un-American, worldwide plans. The Jewish race might then be respected and saved to render great service in a long suffering world.

Sincerely yours,

GEORGE VAN HORN MOSELEY

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S statement on the so-called "Jews:"

"They work more effectively against us than the enemy's armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to our liberties and the great cause we are engaged in. It is much to be lamented that each state, long ago has not hunted them down as pests to society and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America."

U.S. BACKS REDS IN CONGO

Robert Kweku Atta Gardiner, chief of United Nations operations in the Congo who was sent to the U.N. from Ghana, a communist country.

Finally, the UN has succeeded in crushing Tshombe after invading and slaughtering citizens of Katanga. So far, no one has shown where the UN got the authority to use mainly the U.S. taxpayers' money and hire 20,000 troops from countries all over the world to invade an independent country. If they can do that to Katanga, they can do it to any country.

The Chief Advisor of the UN Operations in the Congo, Robert K. Gardiner, was sent from Ghana to the UN. Ghana is a communist country, and it is not likely that they would send anyone but a communist, any more than the Soviet Union would send an anti-communist. During the crisis, U Thant sent his first assistant, Ralph Bunche, to work with Gardiner, and the two of them gave directions to the UN forces in their charge against Katanga. Ralph Bunche has been identified by two of his former comrades as being a communist, and all UN police forces are under Eugeny Kiselev, a communist from the Soviet Union. Hence, we have the communists backed up by the U.S. which gave hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of military equipment, in addition to paying half of the UN costs of more than $300 million.

It is very likely in a few years we will find out that U Thant is a straight out communist.

Most people do not give a thought to distinguishing between the black Negro and the yellow Negro. The yellow, or part white, Negro is far more dangerous—I have dealt with them for sixty years.

Manning Johnson and Leonard Patterson, two black Negroes, attended communist meetings with Ralph Bunche who is more white than black. Johnson and Patterson have both confessed that they were communists and now, having turned from communism, they are helping to expose the communists; whereas Bunche, who is neither Negro nor White, but who is always posing as a Negro, denies he is a communist. He has therefore been able to "climb the ladder," and someone has even added a doctor's degree after his name. He is now in a spot where he is very valuable to the Communist Party. Manning Johnson was killed mysteriously while on the way to make a talk against communism in California, and Leonard Patterson is still alive.

The Menace in UNESCO

(Arranged by Col. Frank Brezina Post 5431, VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, Encinitas, Calif.)

Page 9: "The best over-all reference as to UNESCO's activities in America is to be found in State Department Publication 3931, 55¢ from the Government Printing Office.

"In that you will see highly recommended this little pamphlet called: 'AMERICA'S STAKE IN HUMAN RIGHTS,' published by a department of the National Education Association, the National Council for Social Studies—Stoddard in the now-banned and nationally famous—or infamous—"The 'E' in UNESCO" gives it to the children in Los Angeles. This innocent looking thing which sells for 25¢ sends you, and the children and teachers in Los Angeles to consult the works of at least 25 notorious Red front joiners—and for example, in just one of those books alone and one which is another specific Stoddard recommendation called 'Primer for White Folks' exposes the reader to 15 writers who share 440 citations for Communist activities. Among them Langston Hughes, self-avowed Communist W. E. B. Dubois, Dorothy Parker, Henrietta Buckmaster—and the two key UNESCO reference writers, utterly inescapable in any UNESCO reading—Gene Weltfish and Ruth Benedict. Their booklet titled 'The Races of Mankind' was originally a Public Affairs Pamphlet. That whole series of Pamphlets, much used in all UNESCO teaching, is edited by Maxwell S. Stewart, who has just been named a 'Communist' before the McCarran Committee. That pamphlet was so loaded with Communist propaganda and implications of approval of the intermarriage of races, that it was barred by the War Department from sight and use of American soldiers taking Orientation courses during World War II—yet it is the KEY UNESCO reference given children all over the United States—and even to the babies in grades one through six under the innocent-sounding title: 'In Henry's Backyard'."
